Nancy Wynne Talks of the Dinner-Dance Given Last Evening for Miss Evelyn Martin—She Hears of Affair for Smith College

WHERE was no ball last night because the Atterbury affair had been called off on account of Mrs. Rosenthal's death last week. Mrs. Rosenthal was Elizabeth Atterbury's grandmother, you know, and such a charming person! Mrs. Atterbury was a former Miss Arnold Rosenthal, a sister of Mrs. Lewis Nixon and Joe Rosenthal. George Abbott and Fred Rosewater are the three married brothers.

There was a dinner dance at the Ritz-Carlton for Evelyn Martin, given by the Sydney Erington Martins, her uncle and aunt. Evelyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neithardt Martin. The dinner dance last night was really in the way of a debut, as her parents recalled their invitations for a tea party for her because of the death of Mrs. Martin's mother in October.

Evelyn did not go to any of the early parties, but since November she has been going about. The John White Gang gave a rabbit party for Eve last week, which was great fun.

At the party last night Evelyn wore an attractive frock of salmon-colored brocade which had only trimmings of a pink ornament and she carried the orchids. The dance was held in the main ballroom at the Ritz, and there were about 150 guests.

I HEAR Mrs. Matthew Baird, Jr., who, you know, chaperones the Cinderella dances at the Merion Cricket Club, has asked several debutantes to assist her in reviving at the holiday meeting on January 3. The girls are going to wear the red ribbon garters and are to help the hostess see that every one has a good time. Among those who will help are Ethel Heckscher, Louise Thomas, Alice Eisenberg, Miss Louise Baird, Mabel Gifford, Eleanor Baird, Catherine Mather, Sally Henry and Nancy Norton.

The boys on the committee, headed by Matthew Baird, Jr., are Arthur Baugh, Henry Bain, John Ewing, Henry Jones, Alan Jenkins, Isaac Clothier, William Ashton, Frederick Camp and Henry Drayton.

HAVE you heard that the Smith College Club is going to have a benefit performance of the Tony Sarg Marionettes in the Foyer of the Academy on January 27? This is to raise sufficient money for performances, too, and the proceeds will go to the Smith College Endowment Fund. The little puppets are to play "Don Quixote," and I hear that the greatest number of children are going to see them.

The Zimmers, like the Robert Montagues, have given several small dances and dinner-dances through the season instead of one large affair. Cecilia's tea was cancelled off on account of the death of Mrs. Zimmerman, whose death occurred just the week before the tea was to have taken place. There have been several other parties given for her since then.

LUCILLE had been to church with her mother and felt in a highly spiritual state. Mother suggested upon their return that Loulie go next door to visit a new girl who had moved into the neighborhood. "Mother wants you to go and play with Mary, dear. She is a sweet little girl, and I told her for you to go and play with her." Loulie, who had been spending a few days in New York, was spending a few days at Atlantic City.
